ORIGIN OF THE POTTER AND PRYOR DISPUTE.—The difficulty between Messrs. Potter and Pryor originated from remarks made by Mr. Potter to Pryor during the session on the 5th inst., in the House, when the southerners were attempting to prevent Mr. Lovejoy, of Ill., from continuing his speech upon the slavery question. The point seems to be that Pryor denounced Mr. Lovejoy for shaking his fist, and in doing so Mr. Potter gestured with his fist just as Lovejoy had done. Upon this Mr. Potter said, "You are doing the same thing." It is evident that both members intended in the Gadsby the report of what occurred, and as Pryor says, in an offensive manner, on the part of Mr. Potter. A colloquy took place between the two members in the house on Wednesday, ending by a threat on the part of Pryor that Potter would be called upon to stand by his remarks.

HOW THEY SERVE GAMBLERS IN CHICAGO.—George Trussell, a Chicago gambler, who was brought up in the recorder's court a few days since, was "lectured severely" by the court, fined $100, and compelled to refund $20 that he had won from a young man on card.

WE ATTACHED, the other day, to the fact that a gentleman from the east was in town who had $3,000 to loan at ten per cent, and that he refused to take the "extra" which was usually required as a bonus for "making out papers," etc. Since that case there have been numerous enquiries at our office for that eastern man, some by letter, but generally from our own citizens who are hard up, or want to go to Pike's Peak. Two enthusiastic individuals called merely to see an eastern man who would not take a share on money when it is offered, and proposed to give him a supper of oysters, if he would go to Waukegan's. We will say to all applicants for money that the gentleman intended to have loaned his funds, and that they need not make further application at this office.

NOTES ON THE SENATE.—The Free Democrat of the 13th says that the propeller Prairie State, Capt. W. Williams, of the Northern Transportation Co. line, arrived this morning from the lower lakes, being the first vessel through the straits this season.

MR. POTTER IN THE HOUSE.—Mr. Potter appeared in the House, yesterday afternoon, and was greeted by a number of his friends, with whom he retired to the clerk's room.

THE MADISON PATRIOT says that the official vote on the judicial election "is getting rather close." It is very "close" for Madison.

The Charleston (South Carolina) News says:

"Some weeks since a New York merchant was advised and persuaded to take a southern trip of recreation, on account of his health. He desired to leave alone, and not unnecessarily, as he thought, to remove his wife from the care of the family, and his wife, who only needed change and recreation, his wife, no less determined, in her own feelings and sense of duty, was resolved on accompanying him, and finding all ordinary means ineffectual for gaining his consent, she went to the steamship on which his passage had been engaged. She introduced herself confidentially to the captain, begged a quiet berth, and thus secured her object. The lady's answer was: 'No, we are just now here; but my husband is going to Cleveland next week, and will get a barrel.'

The Amilia, whose inhabitants applied, through Signor Farini, for annexation to the kingdom of Sardinia, embraces the Romagna and the duchies of Modena and Parma. Victor Emanuel having promptly accepted this proffered accession to his power, the Pope has but a very limited territory left him around Rome. By the latest intelligence from Europe, it will be seen that he has fulminated his threatened bull of excommunication against all siding and abetting of political freedom in the Legations.

Mr. Crawford says she wrote one line in the last Kathleen Mayneur, for the express purpose of confounding the cockney girls who sing it thus:

"The sun of the 'lander' is east on the 'm."

Moore has laid the same trap in the Woodpecker:

"A little birdie might 'ope for it 'ere."

And the elephant confounds them the other way:

"A little birdie might 'ope for it 'ere."

A little birdie might 'ope for it 'ere."</p

ORIGIN OF THE POTTER AND PRYOR

DIFFICULTY.—The difficulty between Messrs. Potter and Pryor originated from remarks made by Mr. Potter to Pryor during the scene on the 5th inst., in the House, when the southerners were attempting to prevent

Mr. Lovejoy, of Ill., from continuing his speech upon the slavery question. The point seems to be that Pryor denounced Mr.

Lovejoy for shaking his fist, and in doing so Mr. Pryor gesticulated with his fist just as Lovejoy had done. Upon this Mr. Pot ter said, "You are doing the same thing."

It seems that both members amended in the Globe the report of what occurred, and as

Pryor says, in an offensive manner, on the part of Mr. Potter. A colloquy took place between the two members in the house on Wednesday, ending by a threat on the part of Pryor that Potter would be called upon to stand by his remarks.

HOW THEY SERVE GAMBLERS IN CHICAGO.—George Trassel, a Chicago gambler, who was brought up in the recorder's court a few days since, was "lectured severely" by the court, fined $100, and compelled to return $350 that he had won from a young man on cards.

We alluded, the other day, to the fact that a gentleman from the east was in town who had $3,000 to loan at ten per cent, and that he refused to take the "extras" which are usually required as a bonus for "making out papers," etc. Since that time there have been numerous enquiries

at our office for that eastern man, some by letter, but generally from our own citizens

who are hard up, or want to go to Pike's

Peak. Two enthusiastic individuals called merely to see an eastern man who would not take a slave on money when it is offered,

and proposed to give him a supper of oysters if he would go to Woolscroft's.

We will say to all applicants for money that the gentleman alluded to has loaned his funds, and that they need not make further application at this office.

THROUGH THE STRAITS.—The Free Dem ocrat of the 12th says that the propeller

Prairie State, Capt. W. Williams, of the Northern Transportation Co. line, arrived

this morning from the lower lakes, being the time of William the Conqueror. They were unknown in Sweden until 1514.

A WOMAN AND A WIFE.—The Charleston

Courier of Wednesday says:

"Some weeks since a New York merchant was advised and persuaded to take a southern trip of recreation, on account of his health. He desired to leave alone, and unnecessarily, as he thought, to remove his wife from the care of the family, and to burden her with the nursing of her invalid

husband, who only needed change and recreation.

His wife, no less determined in her own feelings and sense of duty, was resolved on accompanying him, and finding all ordinary

means ineffectual for gaining his consent,

she went to the steamship on which his passage had been engaged. She introduced herself confidentially to the captain, barged

quiet berth, and thus secured her object.

The steamship was some hours out of New York before the invalid husband discovered that his faithful and devoted wife was so near him. On the passage, from that time, she was not only a nurse to her husband, but

a ministering angel of comfort to all who needed her gentle attentions."

Aunt E.—was trying to persuade little

Patsy to sit down, using as an argument that the little chickens went to roost

at that time. "Yes," said Eddy, "but the old hen always goes with them." Aunt E. tried no more arguments with him.

The Buffalo Express of Saturday, says

Hon. Thomas F. Marshall is seriously ill at the city hospital in that city.

"A cart that is 'tumble might' goes for it ere."

And the elephant confounds them the other way."

"A elephant hastes butts at his hease, hinder bumbleous bumbletree."

REPORTED FOR THE MORNING GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,

Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, April 13.

Tribune's Washington Correspondence.

13th.—In accepting Mr. Pryor's challenge,

Mr. Potter wrote to Mr. Lander, saying he did not see any ground for a hostile meeting

on so trifling a cause, and he deprecated

duelling, but as there was an evident intention to pursue him to that extreme, he accepted with the Bowie knife, for the wap-oone.

Hence, while condemning the practice of duelling, he felt that there was no alternative but to meet the necessity in the manner proposed.

Mr. Launder stated this fact to Messrs.

Keitt and Chisolm, when the acceptance was delivered to Col. Lander.

Mr. Potter also delivered to

Col. Lander a private letter which probably had been prepared in expectation of such a contingency.

He regarded the rejection of the challenge as in inherent in his person,

and was determined to vindicate to the last extremity his own personal rights,

as well as those of his constituents.

Such is the substance of his note which was sent to the editor of the Tribune.

It is a clear and audible voice, the prisoner promptly answered, "Guilty, Sir," and was sentenced to penitentiary service for life.

The prison at Waupun now holds "the old man Crook," who is shockingly and brutally murdered his wife but a short time since.

The School Fund of the City.

We understand that it was objected in the council last night that judgment should not be passed upon teacher's orders because the board of education had overdrawn the school fund. This is punishing the teachers for the mistake of others, if any error of that kind has been committed.—The teachers have earned their money faithfully, and there is no class of the creditors of the city more deserving of justice from the council than they. They are entitled to judgment, and it would be shameful if the city should refuse it. The orders were not drawn by the board of education but by the very council before which they were presented. The present board of education, however, audited all the bills upon which they were based, and are ready to take their full share of the responsibility.

In relation to the charge that the fund has been overdrawn, the facts will show that this is not the case. The school fund of this city, for the present school year, which ends in July, is made up as follows—City school tax for 1859—$4,600. School money from the state—$1,844. Normal fund—$1,200. Total outside scholars—$125. Total—$7,844.

The expenditures of the board of education for all purposes during the school year thus far amounts to $7,478.81, as appears by their books; leaving a balance of the fund remaining of $2,230.19.

It will therefore be seen that the school fund for the current year has not been overdrawn; but that there is a large balance yet unappropriated. This will probably be increased by a new division of state school money in June; by tuition money from outside scholars during the present term; and to which ought to be added two or three hundred dollars from the various billiard tables in the city, which have not paid their licenses during the last year, nor for the present.

In order that the expenditures might be lessened the present board have reduced the terms from fourteen weeks to twelve; and they have also suspended two schools—one in the first ward and one in the third. It is believed that room can be found in the other schools of the first ward for the thirty or forty scholars belonged to the school which has been discontinued, during the summer term; while that in the third ward can be accommodated in the High School building. The total saving made by these reductions will amount to over two thousand dollars per year.

What the indebtedness of the school fund is for the previous years, the present board have no means of knowing. They have asked the council to investigate the matter, but no attention has been paid to their request. This investigation would involve a long examination into the books of the city treasurer and clerk, and the board had no control over these officers, nor their accounts. Hence the present board has worked the whole year in the dark so far as the indebtedness is concerned which has been incurred for previous years, by other boards or by orders made upon the school fund by the council independent of the recommendations of the board.

But the present board has not lost sight of the fund raised for this year, and have endeavored to keep within its limits. What has been done previous to their administration and whatever the council has done, in relation to the schools, independent of the board, they are not responsible for. The writer of this, who is a member of the board, deems this explanation called for, that the teachers may not be deprived of what is their due by any representation in relation to the action of the board of education.

The annual report of the board cannot be made until the end of the summer term, which closes the present school year. At that time a statement in detail of past expenditures, and an estimate for the future will be made as usual. H. B.

A RUNAWAY.—Two ladies, Mrs. Parshall and her sister, were driving past the railroad depot, this afternoon, with a horse and buggy; the horse becoming frightened, ran away, and breaking from the buggy, with the thills attached to the harness, plunged into the midst of a crowd on the sidewalk, who were attending an auction. One man was knocked down senseless, but afterwards recovered, but does not appear to be seriously injured. After running down through Main street the horse was stopped without further harm being done. The ladies were, fortunately, uninjured.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL FUND.—It will be seen that the Board of Normal Regents have cut down the distribution of their fund to a very small number of students, reducing the numbers reported about one third all around. This was done, as is said, because the remaining two thirds did not come up to the standard required, upon examination. We have this to say in relation to the normal class in the Janesville High School, that they were not examined at all, and how the board came to the conclusion that fifteen out of the twenty-two should be rejected in the apportionment, is a mystery.

ERINNATTA.—In the hurry of correcting proof last night, our compositor made a wrong correction in the trains upon the G. & C. U. R. R. The time is correct. We publish it again this evening as it should be.

ERINNATTA.—Those desiring this fast and cheap protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin Company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having approximately 10,000 members in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that it can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

Order while you have time, and should insure that they should keep their money for investments at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most successful companies in the country, we invite you to call at the office, south-west corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for yourselves.
